

UC IRVINE: AFRICAN AMERICAN STUDIES
PRESENTS THE NEW DOCUMENTARY

THE ANGELA DAVIS PROJECT: MOUNTAINS THAT TAKE WING:
ANGELA DAVIS, YURI KOCHIYAMA & THE URGENCY OF NOW

A feature documentary on women of color cultural workers featuring conversations that span over ten years between Professor Davis and Grassroots community activist Yuri Kochiyama

Angela Davis

Yuri Kochiyama

Film-makers H.L.T. Quan (School of Justice and Social Inquiry, Arizona State University) & C.A. Griffith (School of Theatre and Film, Arizona State University) will be joined by Faculty Respondent Frank Wilderson III (African American Studies & Drama, UC Irvine).

Wednesday May 20, 2009

7:00-9:00 PM

DR. JOSEPH L. WHITE CONFERENCE ROOM
CROSS CULTURAL CENTER

FREE &
OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Co-sponsored by: Afrikan Student Union, the Ph.D. Program in Visual Studies, Anthropology, the Gender Education Series, the Cross-Cultural Center, Women's Studies, Asian American Studies, Chicano/Latino Studies, the Center for Law, Society and Culture, Chemers Art Gallery of Tustin, and the Center for Global Peace and Conflict Studies

For further information, contact Jennifer Day at dayj@uci.edu or 949-824-2376.
For concerns regarding a disability, please contact the UCI Disabilities Services Center at 949-824-7494.