

BLACK INTERNATIONALISTS CLUB

"We are so tired of talking about this every single day. Its really normal that people are killed, especially the black youth, by the police, and nothing happens. Its something that is normal for the Brazilian populations."

Photo Credit: Michelle Teixeira

"Students of Pretoria Girls High School protesting a long-standing rule that they should not keep Afro hairstyles."

Photo Credit: African Spotlight

"Student protesters are using the tools we teach in college classrooms to engage critically with the world around them."

Photo Credit: Michael B. Thomas

Meetings:

Wednesday, October 26 - SSII Room 1010, 5-7pm
Wednesday, November 30 - SSII Room 1010, 5-7pm
Wednesday, January 25 - SSII Room 1010, 5-7pm
Wednesday, February 22 - SSII Room 1010, 5-7pm
Wednesday, April 26 - Black Resource Center, 5-7pm

The Black Internationalists offer resources and guides for applying to study abroad and conducting research while abroad; reimburses the costs for passport applications; and utilizes student reflections & presentations, film viewings, and group discussions to create a space for meaningful conversation around experiences of Blackness locally and globally.