Power and Resistance 3rd Film Screening: Delicate Cages

Screening: Raise the Red Lantern (Yimou Zhang, 1991)
Date: 2/6 18:00-21:00
Place: HIB 469 Conference Room

This week we are going to watch how patriarchic hegemony exercises its power by dominating women’s desire in Raise the Red Lantern. Through closely examining the delicate architecture, interior decoration of rooms, and the design of lights, we would like to invite our participants to think about the relationship between power, space, and gender in early modern China.

Host: Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures
Discussants: Kiki Ssu-Fang Liu & Tian Li

Light Refreshments will be served.
