

UCI Department of German
Major in German Studies Checklist

STUDENT NAME: _____

The German major requires the successful completion of 14 upper-division courses total. Five of the upper-division courses must be completed successfully at UCI. Before courses taken elsewhere can count toward the German Studies major they must first be accepted as transfer credit by the registrar.

Note that the upper-division writing requirement must be met by additional coursework either within or outside the department. The requirements listed here do not include university and school-wide requirements. For a list of these, please read the UCI General Catalogue and consult with your undergraduate counselor. The German Studies major consists of the following:

COURSE	LOCATION	TERM	GRADE
Basic curriculum. Majors must pass each of the following:
1. German 100A. Reading:
2. German 100B. Writing
3. German 100C. Verbal Communication
4. German 101. Introduction to German Literature
TWO Topics Courses in English or German. Majors must pass two courses from among the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • German 139, 140, 150, 160 • Linguistics 3 • Comparative Literature CL 50A, B, C • Courses in German history, German philosophy, or German political science, as approved by the advisor for the major
5.
6.
EIGHT Upper-division courses in German. Majors must pass eight upper-division courses in German literature and culture and taught in German. NOTE: At least five of the upper-division courses must be completed successfully at UCI, unless otherwise approved by the Department of German.
7.
8.
9.
10.
11.
12.
13.
14.
Writing Requirement Course(s) taken, if not included in the list above. If in the list above, mark clearly with *			