UCI Humanities Language Learning Program
Peer-to-Peer Mentor Program

Mentor Application

I. Background Information

Name: Email: Year:

Student ID Number: Major: GPA:

Language (Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, or Vietnamese):

Do you have any tutoring or mentoring experience? If so, briefly describe it.

II. Language Abilities

Please describe your language background (courses, heritage speaker, etc.):

Highest level of formal language coursework (Arabic, Hebrew, Persian, or Vietnamese):

How would you rate your language fluency?

Native Near-Native Advanced Intermediate Beginner

How often do you speak in the target language? Which dialect(s) do you speak (if appropriate)?
III. Please write a short essay (1-2 paragraphs) describing why you would like to be a language mentor and consider the following questions in your essay: What strengths do you think you will bring to the program? What other activities do you do in order to keep up your language skills? What sorts of activities would you like to plan for your mentee? How will you ease the fears of a student who is nervous about learning a new language? You need not limit yourself to these questions, but please be certain to address them in your response.

Please submit application by emailing it to:

Dr. Cynthia Claxton
Director, Humanities Language Learning Program
cynthia.claxton@uci.edu

You may also submit your application by bringing it to the Department of Classics, 400 Murray Krieger Hall.