The International Journal of Ancient Iranian Studies is a refereed journal that publishes papers on any aspect of ancient Iranian civilization. The journal also welcomes essays that deal with classical Persian epic literature, Iranian elements in the early Islamic period, Zoroastrianism, and Manichaeism after the seventh century CE. It will especially focus on recent discoveries in the field, as well as with editions and translations of texts and inscriptions. We aim to facilitate dialogue and contact among scholars of Iranian studies in Iran, Europe and North America. The journal will publish papers mainly in English and Persian, although essays in Arabic, French, German, and Italian may also be considered.

Submission of Articles

We require two hard copies of every submission along with an electronic copy on a 3.5" diskette in Word or WordPerfect (Please indicate the exact version of the program in which your essay is composed). Articles must be typed, on one side of standard white paper. Text and footnotes must be double spaced, and notes should appear at the end of the paper on separate sheets. All foreign terms that are not found in the latest edition of Webster's Collegiate Dictionary, must be underlined in the manuscript and must be marked with diacritics. A short abstract (150 words) should be included with the submission.

Although we use a system of blind refereeing; authors who do not wish their identity to become known to the referees should take care that this is not revealed in their text.

Authors will receive galley proofs, and must return them promptly.

NIB is published twice a year, in September and March. All editorial communications from outside Iran should be addressed to the Editor at the:
