

Travel Study Award

2016 - 2017

The Program of European Studies is happy to be able to award one travel-study grant in the amount of $500.00 for travel expenses associated with participation in an accredited study program in a European country, either during the summer of 2017 or during the academic year 2017-2018 (including UCI Education Abroad Programs)

Requirements

- Cover sheet
- A Personal Statement (maximum: 3 pages) detailing your academic area of interest, your experiences to date in the European Studies Major or in the field of European Studies, and previous travel to or study in Europe. Please be as detailed as possible in order to give the faculty reading your statement a sense of your background, your intellectual profile, and the place of your study of Europe in your plans for the future
- A Project Proposal/Description of the Program (maximum: one and a half pages) in which you will be enrolled: These materials must include evidence of your application to or acceptance in an accredited program of study (language study, cultural study, etc.), with details about the program included. The program may be UC sponsored (e.g. UC EAP), but does not have to be.
- A price quote for travel expenses. Please also indicate the tuition costs associated with the program.
- An up-to-date academic transcript.
- A Letter of Recommendation from a faculty member who has instructed you in a course for European Studies. Please have your faculty recommender review your Personal Statement and your Project Proposal before writing the letter of recommendation.
