Dear Spanish majors,

if you would like to do some volunteer work AND practice your Spanish, here is an opportunity:

"Families Forward is a non-profit organization in Irvine that works with homeless and low-income families in the south Orange County area. Smiling and positive volunteers are wanted to assist Families Forward staff in the office at the front desk. Volunteers answer telephones, interact with emergency food clients, offer community referrals and provide general administrative support. Currently Families Forward is looking for any individuals interested in this position that speaks and/or speaks Farsi.

Spanish

Two-three hour shifts are available Monday - Thursday between 9am - 5pm and Friday 9am-1pm. A three month commitment is needed. Training is provided."
