

OC&SEAA CENTER FILM SERIES

Agents of Change

The longest student strike in U.S History

Film Screening & Discussion

SYNOPSIS: Current struggles to make colleges welcoming and relevant for students of color continue movements which swept across campuses fifty years ago. AGENTS OF CHANGE tells the timely and inspiring story of how successful protests for equity and inclusion led to establishing the first Black and Ethnic Studies departments at two very different universities: San Francisco State (1968) and Cornell (1969).

RUN TIME: 67 Minutes

Year: 2016

Additional Screening:

BADAAS: Beginnings of Activism for the Department of Asian American Studies @ UCI

3 short films created by Justine Trinh, Maribel Comparan, & Cayla Zhang

February 21, 2019

5:00 – 7:00 P.M.

OC&SEAA Center

Moderated By Prof. Tiffany Willoughby-Herard & Prof. Gilbert Gonzalez

Screenings are free and open to all, but space is limited; light refreshments will be provided.

This film series is co-sponsored by the UCI Libraries Diversity Team, Department of Asian American Studies, the Southeast Asian Student Association, AAPI Womxn in Leadership and Cross-Cultural Center.

For more information, contact Thuy Vo Dang:
tvodang@uci.edu