Get to know Justice & Development in China, the Spring semester campus-wide graduate colloquium.

Pizza Pop Party

Mon, Nov. 21

4 pm to 5:30 pm

Law School Courtyard
Coming this Spring, Prof. Benjamin van Rooij will lead Justice & Development in China, a graduate colloquium, with notable legal, history social science experts.

Learn how law and society can shape media and freedom of speech, inequality, climate change, labor relations, corruption, agriculture and food production in China.

Open to all grad students.