THE DEPARTMENT OF ASIAN AMERICAN STUDIES AND KABABAYAN (UCI) PRESENT

a book talk and signing with

Professor Dawn Bohulano Mabalon
(History/Asian American Studies, San Francisco State University)

Wednesday, December 4, 2013
5:00-7:00pm
Humanities Instructional Building (HIB) 135

Little Manila was home to the largest community of Filipinas/os outside of the Philippines until the neighborhood was decimated by urban redevelopment in the 1960s. Narrating a history spanning much of the twentieth century, Professor Mabalon’s book traces the growth of Stockton’s Filipina/o American community, the birth and eventual destruction of Little Manila, and recent efforts to remember and preserve it.

Books will be available for sale and signing. Light food and refreshments will be provided. This event is FREE and open to the public.

Co-sponsored by the departments of History and Women’s Studies, and the Southeast Asian Archives (Langson Library).
