African American Studies Program Lecture Series 2009

PART 1: NEW RESEARCH DIRECTIONS

"Tourist Tales and Erotic Adventures in Salvador, Bahia"

Erica Williams
Stanford, Anthropology
University of California Dissertation Year Fellow,
Department of Black Studies: UC Santa Barbara

"This is Just Like Prison": Prison Regime and Public Education

Damien Schnyder
University of Texas, Austin, Anthropology & African Diaspora Studies
University of California Dissertation Year Fellow,
Department of Black Studies: UC Santa Barbara

Faculty Discussant: Adriana Michele Campos Johnson
Assistant Professor, Comparative Literature, University of California, Irvine

PART 2: HELPFUL HINTS FOR THINKING ABOUT GRADUATE SCHOOL

Come with all of your questions about how get into graduate school, what a successful application includes, how to think about a research project, research opportunities for undergraduates, and funding a graduate education. Our panelists will be available to answer questions.

Wednesday, April 22, 2009
2:30 – 4:30pm
HIB 135

Free and Open to the Public

For further information, contact Jennifer Day at dayj@uci.edu or 949-824-2376. For concerns regarding a disability, please contact the UCI Disabilities Services Center at 949-824-7494.