

WHAT THE EYES DON'T SEE

A PROCESS OF UNCOVERING THE FLINT WATER CRISIS

A conversation with Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha

Weds., January 23 · 5 p.m.

UCI Student Center - Crystal Cove Auditorium

Book signing at 6 p.m.

RSVP: bit.ly/uciwater

Dr. Mona Hanna-Attisha – pediatrician, professor, and public health advocate – will sit down with UCI assistant professor Alana LeBron to discuss her book What the Eyes Don't See about her research and activism exposing the Flint water crisis.

First 350 RSVPs to attend will receive a free book!

For more information on this speaker please visit www.prhspeakers.com

Presented by

UCI Wellness, Health & Counseling Services

Co-sponsors

UCI Population Health and Disease Prevention

UCI Department of Anthropology

UCI School of Humanities

UCI Department of Chicano/Latino Studies

UCI Law Center for Land, Environment and Natural Resources (CLEANR)

UCI Department of History School of Humanities

UCI Community Resilience