

ADAM BRAVER edits the Broken Silence Series for the University of New Orleans Press. These books tell the firsthand accounts of political dissidents. He is on faculty and author-in-residence at Roger Williams University, and teaches at the NY State Summer Writers Institute. He is the author of Mr. Lincoln's Wars, Divine Sarah, Crows Over the Wheatfield, November 22, 1963, and Misfit. His forthcoming novel, The Disappeared, will be published in Fall 2017.

Leading Scholars at Risk (SAR) Student Advocacy Seminars

A WORKSHOP

Wednesday, October 4, 2017

12:00–2:00PM

Humanities Gateway 1002

PROFESSOR BRAVER will lead a workshop for faculty and students who are interested in merging ethical-political activism with knowledge-building practices within the space of a collective pedagogy. In collaboration with SCHOLARS AT RISK (SAR), Braver's seminars adopt an individual writer or thinker from SAR's list of imprisoned or persecuted scholars and develop advocacy strategies to help raise consciousness and ultimately aid in the release of this person from prison or from persecution. Braver will describe his many years of experience leading these seminars, recommend a variety of best practices, and facilitate discussion.

Supported by the Office of the Executive Vice Chancellor and Provost. For further information: Jane O. Newman, jonewman@uci.edu

SCHOLARS AT RISK NETWORK

UCI University of California, Irvine