

This fall, enroll in East Asian Studies 130: Korean Society and Culture

Fall 2019

Course Code: 23060

MWF | 11:00AM-11:50AM | SSL 159

- ◆ Korean major required course
- ◆ Elective course for International Studies majors

This course is a survey of modern Korean society and culture. We will examine and interpret the meanings of Korean social and cultural institutions. Topics of discussion include family and gender relationship, war and national division, industrialization, social movement, globalization, multi-culturalism, and popular culture and culture industry. We will also explore the life and society of North Korea and follow the current events closely.

