

Japanese Environmental Humanities In the Desert Master Class Previews

Monday 10 December // HG1010

1pm // Opening Remarks, Margherita Long, East Asian Studies, UCI: “Readers’ Report from Our Grad Seminar Just Ended”

1:20 // Douglas Slaymaker, U. Kentucky “What the Animals Know, What the Translator Doesn’t”

1:40 // Toshiya Ueno, Wakō University, “Ecosophy, Pedagogy, and Unnatural Nuptuals in Abe Kōbō”

2:00 // Thomas Lamarre, McGill University, “Tōson, Meiji Animal Farms, and ‘Natural Rights’ as a Basis for Politics”

Sponsored by The Japan Foundation, UCI Humanities Commons, UCI International Center for Writing and Translation, and UCI Center for Asian Studies