

PARASITE

Is it Jjapaguri or Ramdon? Sharing the Oscars with Korean Film Experts

The 92nd Academy Awards was filled with surprises—not only was without a host for the second year in a row, but also the American Motion Pictures Academy of Arts and Sciences for the first time in its history decided to award its Best Picture Prize of the Year to a foreign language film: Parasite (Kisaengch'ung, Bong Joon-ho). CCKS will host a lunch roundtable featuring UCI's faculty Kyung Hyun Kim (EAS), Joseph Jeon (English), and Catherine Liu (FMS) who will discuss the reasons behind “why everybody is talking about Parasite—a dark Korean satire that has struck a chord worldwide.”

Jjapaguri (in cup noodles) and other lunch items will be served.
