

The McCormick Screening Room

March 2019

1070 Humanities Gateway

Monday, March 4th | 4:00 PM

The Absent Stone and Q&A with Director Jesse Lerner

Using ethnographic filmmaking, animation, and found footage, this film documents how the largest single-stone sculpture was moved from a small village to Mexico City's busy streets. Presented by Latin American Studies.

Tuesday, March 5th | 6:00 PM

French Film Series - Laurence Anyways

The story of a relationship between a woman, Frédérique, and a transgender woman named Laurence who reveals her desire to become her true self. Presented by the UCI European Languages and Studies Department

Wednesday, March 6th | 6:30 PM

International Film Club - A Girl Walks Home Alone at Night

A genre-bending Vampire Western set in Tehran! The screening will be followed by a reception of dinner and a Q&A with executive producer Reza Safai. Present by the Jordan Center for Persian Studies and FMS.

Thursday, March 7th | 5:00 PM

FMS Essential Film Series - 2001: A Space Odyssey

Stanley Kubrick's epic masterpiece. The discovery of a mysterious monolith buried beneath the lunar surface sends astronaut Dave Bowman on a quest to unearth its origins while under the watchful eye of HAL 9000.

Monday, March 11th | 8:00 PM

The Newkirk Center - Southwest of Salem

Part of the Wrongful Convictions Film and Book series. After being wrongfully convicted during the Satanic Panic of the 80s, four Latina lesbians fight against homophobia in this gay rights 'True Crime' tale.

Thursday, March 21st | 5:00 PM

FMS Essential Film Series - A Fistful of Dollars

A classic Spaghetti Western starring Clint Eastwood. When a man with no name arrives to a town torn apart by greed and revenge by two rival gangs, he pits the gangs against each other in this frontier adventure.

