

Meditations on the Maghreb

Friday, January 24, 2020

3:00 - 6:00 p.m. | HIB 135

Photo credit: Rapture by Shirin Neshat

Four Scholars will present work on the Maghreb at an afternoon symposium featuring: Lia Brozgal (French, UCLA) on the October 17, 1961, massacre of Algerians in Paris; Katarzyna Pierprzak (French, Williams College) on art of the Moroccan "bidonvilles" (slums); Virginie Rey (Anthropology, UCI) on Tunisian museums; and Laura Klein (French, UCI) on the Mediterranean Maghreb. Ian Coller (History, UCI) will serve as Respondent.

UCI International Center for Writing and Translation

Co-sponsored by the Departments of European Languages & Studies and Comparative Literature and the Humanities Center