

An Evening of Music from James Joyce

MUSIC FROM JAMES JOYCE

Join us for evening of songs performed by Fran O'Rourke, Emeritus Professor of Philosophy, University College Dublin.

As well as philosophical influences on James Joyce, Professor O'Rourke has researched Joyce's use of Irish traditional song. In 2012 he sponsored the restoration of the guitar once owned by Joyce. He regularly performs recitals of Joyce-related songs with John Feeley, Ireland's leading classical guitarist. Together they have performed in Shanghai, Washington, New York and Philadelphia. A CD of their concert in Monaco, St Patrick's Day 2015, has been published (www.joycesong.info). Fran O'Rourke has also given solo performances in Moscow, Cairo, Rome, Belgrade, Warsaw, Sofia, and Athens. In earlier days he appeared on Irish and Belgian television and made numerous recordings of Irish traditional songs for German radio.

Event Details

When: Tuesday, November 13, 7:30 - 9:15 p.m.

Where: Humanities Gateway 1030

Organizer: Sean Greenberg \(email\)

Register / RSVP