

MEDICAL HUMANITIES TALK SERIES

Harvinder Sahota, MD

"Future Evolution of the Practice of Medicine"

Dr. Harvinder Sahota is the inventor of the FDA approved Perfusion Balloon Angioplasty known as "Sahota Perfusion Balloon". He holds two dozen patents for other medical inventions including Red Laser Light for prevention of Restenosis, Multi-Lobe Balloon, Fibrin coated Stent, Hemostat to stop bleeding from ruptured artery during the procedure. He performed the first coronary Angioplasty in many hospitals around the world including India, Mexico, Russia, Ukraine and the United States. He has served as the Vice Chair and Chairman of Orange County Emergency Medicine Commission in California and Research Director and Advisory Board members of the Metro Hospital Heart Institute in New Delhi, India, and Tbilisi, Republic of Georgia.

MARCH 8, 2019
11AM-12:20PM | HIB 55

