

MEANING OF LIFE LUNCH

Artists and brothers Gabriel and Isaac Fortoul painted this mural on the city hall parking structure in Long Beach, 2019.

SOUNDS and SILENCE

JAN.
8

& every Friday
after in Winter
2021

Are sounds and silence worthy of analysis? Of experience? What is the world through sound? What are we through hearing? Sounds and silence locate us in senses and in space. This quarter, we'll think loosely about sounds and silence as they shape our worlds, perceptions, feelings, memories, navigation, dissonance, harmonies, and vibration in and with the world.

WHEN: noon-1:00 pm every Friday on Zoom

WHERE: ZOOM; Bring your own lunch and log in (come and go as you need) <https://uci.zoom.us/j/98091127287>

WHO: Anyone! Students, faculty, staff-interested in the intersection of sounds and silence, philosophy, society, ecology, religion & meaning. No preparation needed to attend.

Questions? Contact Brianne Donaldson b.donaldson@UCI.edu, Philosophy & Religious Studies