

LITTORAL LAW

May 30, 2023

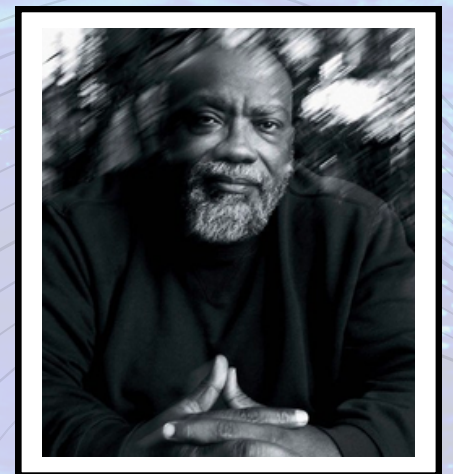

HG 1030

Layli Long Soldier | Fred Moten | M. NourbeSe Philip

Layli Long Soldier is the author of WHEREAS (Graywolf Press, 2017), which received multiple awards including the PEN/Jean Stein Book Award and the Whiting Award, and was a finalist for the National Book Award.

Fred Moten, MacArthur Fellow, is the author The Feel Trio (2014), which was a National Book Award Poetry Finalist, All That Beauty (2019), both from Letter Machine Editions, and Perennial Fashion Presence Falling (2023) from Wave Books.

M. NourbeSe Philip, recipient of the PEN/Nabokov award in International Literature, is the author of Zong! (Wesleyan University Press, 2008), the 2021 winner of World Literature Today's 21 Books for the 21st Century.

SCHEDULE

3:30PM Readings/Discussions | 5:00PM Book Signing | 5:30PM Reception

Sponsors

Illuminations | Department of African American Studies | Program in Global Languages & Communication
poetics|history|theory | School of Medicine, Program in Medical Humanities & Arts
Department of Criminology, Law & Society | Center for Excellence in Writing & Communication
Office of the Campus Writing & Communication Coordinator | UCI Critical Theory
Department of History | Department of Art History | Department of Asian American Studies
Department of Comparative Literature | Department of Gender & Sexuality Studies
PhD Program in Culture & Theory | Native American Studies Program