

UCI COM LIT 298/299
Course Enrollment Approval Form

COM LIT 298: Pre-Dissertation Research. 1-12 Units. Taken under the direction of the graduate advisor or committee member in preparation for the Ph.D. exam. It can be taken after students have completed the M.A. review and program coursework requirements.
Grading Option: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory only
Repeatability: May be taken for credit 6 times

COM LIT 299: Dissertation Research. 4-12 Units.
A units-only course for students in the dissertation phase.
Grading Option: Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory only
Repeatability: May be taken unlimited times

*Please refrain from enrolling in CL 299 if you have not yet passed your PhD qualifying exams; if you continue to do so, you must submit retroactive paperwork to the Graduate Division for every quarter enrolled in CL 299.

This slip must be filled out and signed by the student, then signed by the instructor of the course and the Director of Graduate Studies. It should then be returned to the Comparative Literature Graduate Coordinator who will assign the course authorization code.

Please attach a syllabus of this study. Your syllabus should include expected goals for the quarter according to which performance can be judged as satisfactory or unsatisfactory.

Examples of these goals can include: a specific set of readings either for the PhD exam or the dissertation; specified number of meetings with professor/advisor (at least one per quarter); revision of a piece of writing, professionalization task (i.e. producing an abstract and conference paper, teaching statement, job letter).

Course Number _____ Quarterly Syllabus Title _____

Course Code _____ Quarter _____

Student _____

Instructor _____

DGS, Comp Lit _____