HOW TO NARRATE THE SELF. THE ACADEMIC PATHS OF SELF-FICTION

Throughout their long literary trajectories, Professors Jacobo Sefamí and Gonzalo Navajas have consistently followed a multifaceted and diverse intellectual orientation that has allowed them to combine and unify literary studies and creative writing and study the structural and semantic intercrossings of both modes of writing. In this event, they will present their latest works of creative writing. Jacobo Sefamí will discuss his peripatetic book, Por tierras extrañas, and Gonzalo Navajas will talk about his existential travelogue, Comenzar de cero. Pedagogía de un exilio americano. Their presentations will be followed by an exchange with the presenters and a Q&A period. The event will be held online at the following address: <https://uci.zoom.us/j/91820512806>
