BE A HUMANITIES PEER MENTOR
It is fun and rewarding!

Help give new freshpeople a trouble-free start to life in the Humanities at UCI, and use the program to enhance your own resumé and/or graduate school applications.

REQUIREMENTS
- Are you a Humanities major?
- Will you be a true junior or senior (at least two years of college completed) and will you have attended UCI for three quarters or more by 9/1/19?
- Will you have been a Humanities major for three quarters or more by 9/1/19?
- Is your overall GPA a B- (2.7) or better?
- Do you have an interest in sharing what you know about UCI and the surrounding area with a small group of new freshpeople?

IF SO, PLEASE APPLY!

You must leave Thursdays 2-3:20 open in the Fall for weekly classes. You must take part in both Fall 2019 and Winter 2020.

Applications due

In Fall the mentors take a class about mentoring in higher education which meets for an hour and a half each week. It includes discussing readings, sharing ideas for activities, producing biweekly journal entries, etc. Mentors get 4 units of P/NP only credit in the Fall and in the Winter for taking part in the program. They also meet weekly for an hour a week with 2-6 assigned mentees and design and attend one early evening workshop each quarter.

For more information, contact Lisa Payne-Miller in the Humanities Undergraduate Counseling Office by stopping by 143 HIB, calling (949) 824-5132, or emailing lpaynemi@uci.edu. Applications available in 143 HIB or on the Humanities Undergraduate website. Completed applications are due by 4 pm, Thursday, May 16, 2019, in 143 HIB. Late applications may, or may not, be considered depending on the on-time applicant pool. (Preference given to applicants who came to UCI as freshpeople.)
